

MARCH - In Rye We Trust

The Diamondback

Rittenhouse 100 proof Rye, Apple Brandy, Green Chartreuse

A powerful drink and a great example of three liquors coming together to create a bold yet balanced cocktail. The Diamondback has somewhat of a local connection since it was named after Diamondback lounge in the Lord Baltimore hotel.

New York Sour

Dad's Hat Vermouth Aged Rye, Lemon, Sugar, Dow's Ruby Port Float

Created in Chicago in the 1880's and later popularized during the New York prohibition era. Instead of red wine we use a Ruby Port float. Dad's Hat Source there rye from local farms in Pennsylvania that use sustainable production methods.

The Sazerac

Sazerac Rye, Sugar, Absinthe, Peychaud Bitters, Lemon.

Many believe this was the first cocktail dating back to pre-civil war times served by New Orleans apothecary Antoine Amedie Peychaud. The Sazerac was originally served with brandy. Its simplicity is a true test to a bartender's skills

Savage Guns

Old Overholt Rye, Pedro Ximenez, Bittermens Mole bitters, orange peel

This cocktail name pays homage to one of the first American westerns to be filmed in Spain, a spin on a Manhattan we replace sweet vermouth with Pedro Ximenez a sweet sherry made in Spain from dried grapes.

Gin is the New Rye

St George Dry Rye Gin, Dolin Rouge, Angostura Bitters, Cherry.

St George Spirits are one of the pioneers of American craft spirits; there dry rye gin starts with a base of 100% pot stillled rye. This cocktail is for fans of Martini's.

Tea and Sympathy

Ceylon infused Jim Beam Rye, Amer Picon, Pomegranate Syrup, Bittermans Orange Cream Citrate, Lemon

A DGS original cocktail. We infuse Jim Beam Rye with Ceylon black tea for one week and served the cocktail over ice with a slice of blood orange

Farmers Almanac

Redemption Rye, Sweet Shine Raspberry Lemon Cordial, Orange Clove Syrup, Orange Twist

This is another DGS original-- this cocktail is sweet and spicy and features West Virginia's Sweetshine Distillery Raspberry Lemon Cordial.

The Boilermaker
