

GIJÓN – SANTIAGO – GIJÓN

Jacobeo

2011

First day Thursday

The passengers' check-in will take place between 13:30 and 15:30. Once the trip has started the train will take us to the first Galician site at the banks near the mouth of Eo's River. Dinner in the Parador and night in Ribadeo.

Second day Friday

After a refreshing rest and while having breakfast on board, the train will arrive to Viveiro, a beautiful walled city; visit and splendid views from Mount San Roque.

Afterwards we will get by train to Ortigueira; from there we will go by coach to Cariño. Lunch in Cedeira. After lunch we will continue our tour to Cape Ortegal, whose awe inspiring cliffs and views from the northernmost point of Spain are absolutely unique. We will follow our journey to the Sanctuary of San Andrés de Teixido and then to Cedeira, returning back to Ortigueira in time to have dinner and spend the night.

Third day Saturday

After having a succulent breakfast on board, we, such as pilgrims, will get by coach to Santiago de Compostela. We shall visit its Old Quarters and the Cathedral. After lunch we will approach A Coruña, Tower of Hércules, Seafront promenade and María Pita Square. In the afternoon we will reach Ferrol where we will make a brief tour and spend the night. Dinner in Ferrol.

SUNDAY: Ferrol – Mondoñedo – Gijón

Early in the morning, shrouded in mist and surrounded by cliffs, we will get to Foz, from there we shall approach to Mondoñedo, whose Cathedral keeps a prevailing location. There the beaches of la Marina Lucense await us. Lunch in Rinlo. In the afternoon, we will go back to the train in Navia; our trip will end in Gijón around 19,30 h..
