

This classic art deco apartment building and its lobby bar are a true reflection of the sophistication and maturity of the surrounding Gold Coast neighborhood.

This lobby bar has been restored and after 75 years we've dusted it off, replaced the light bulbs and have re-opened to the public as the original establishment, The Sparrow.

The Sparrow established in 1927 was designed to be an escape for residents, looking for a nightcap or late night rendezvous with a mistress. The barkeeps here have long been privy to more intimate dialog than even the building's doorman, essentially becoming the building's concierge. All requests, all stories accepted, not judged but rather kept within the surrounding walls.

We welcome all and don't feel the need to flaunt.

Welcome to The Sparrow Est 1927

What is the Sparrow

A social, beautiful and intelligent bird, yes. But a true persona of the residents who nested above.

The Sparrow, social and outgoing but also very private in many regards.

The Sparrow, very established in their profession and craft, but a perfectionist.

The Sparrow, always pondering the next move all while not moving much at all.
