Tel'Veh

Café & Wine Bar

Introduction

Your host, Thierry Lesparre and TEL'VEH team.

For nearly twenty years I have worked as a Sommelier, my professional career has taken me through various regions in France (Bordeaux, Bourgogne, Loire, Champagne, Rhône, Provence and Languedoc) and all over Europe wine countries and settle to some of the most amazing city like Paris and London where I worked in prestigious restaurant and meet my mentor Mr. Olivier Poussier who would later influence my career to become a Sommelier.

In the US, I have worked mainly in the Mid-Atlantic region with nationally and world renowned chefs like Jean-Louis Palladin, Robert Weidmaier, Yannick Cam, and Georges Perrier.

Meet at several occasions Mr. Robert Parker from the Wine Advocate Magazine for private tasting and discussion.

This wine list will show you a vast range of wine styles, the many thousands of different producers, the hundreds of different grape varieties, countries and the differences apparent between each vintage as well as great values and the next all conspire to maintain the interest of even the most ardent connoisseur. But this complexity, which in truth keeps us all novices.

The world of wine changes each and every day and for the last ten years, while deepening my love for the wines of Europe and North-America, I have also passionately embraced wines from elsewhere in the world.

I love sharing my passion and my enthusiasm; I am driven by the search for the right food and wine pairings and never cease to delight in working on food themes and bringing wine to life, focusing on the varietals, the appellations, the wine making methods and above all the people the men and women who make wine. Warmth and friendship, clarity and simplicity are inherently part of my daily routine.

I have been fortunate in pursuing a career in a fascinating field which offers daily opportunities to pursue the two goals I set for myself continually strive to be a high-level professional, and spread the love for wine and gastronomy. This will be our mission to reach all expectation and go beyond if possible. Cheers...
