Rye
Brand	Proof	Profile	Type	1.5 oz.
Bulleit 95 Rye †	90	Solid. Not as pungent as most ryes. Toffee. Molasses. Light wood. Slightly herbal.	American	9.00
Charred Oak Rye	80	Hand made one bottle at a time. Smells of vanilla, toffee, caramel and herbaceous spices. Soft rye flavor, but nonetheless distinctive.	American	8.00
High West Rocky Mountain Double Rye	92	A blend of two rye whiskies, hence "double rye." One 16 year &amp; one 2 year. Heavy rye on the nose. Woody, herbal and menthol-like flavors. A marriage of flavors that keeps coming out as you sip. Caramel, coal, and root beer. Just try it.	American	9.00
Jefferson's Reserve 10 Rye	94	Full body with classic caramel and vanilla flavors. Hints of dark chocolate. Tasty.	American	10.00
Knob Creek Rye	100	Typical alcoholic vapor nose for Knob. Let it settle for a second to smell some cherry and sawdust notes. A spicy finish with a touch of vanilla and menthol.	American	10.00
Lion's Pride Dark Rye	80	Organic grains give this spirit a fresh and light profile. Hints of maple and candy corn. Spicy finish. Worth sipping.	American	7.00
Old Overholt Rye	80	The rye that has set the standard. Survived Prohibition and remains on shelves everywhere. Packs a punch. Balance of brown spice and delicate fruit.	American	7.00
Pendleton 1910 – 12 YR	80	Round, rich notes of tobacco. Some charred oak and butterscotch. Intense fruit flavors paired with peppery kick. Well rounded for a 100% rye product.	Canadian	9.00
Rittenhouse Rye 100	100	Smoky and peppery tobacco flavors balance the sugary brown notes. Not as acidic and dry as some ryes out there. A standard and approachable rye for getting your feet wet in high-proof spirits.	American	7.00
Rittenhouse Rye 21 YR	100	The nose is hot, here. Strong and a distinct sour taste at first, but mellows its way into a chocolate and oaky finish. Add a few drops of water to get a little more out of this one.	American	30.00
Riverboat Rye	80	Fruity nose leans toward the apricot while still getting a good amount of wood. Takes a few sips to let the spice mellow out. A young and approachable rye.	American	7.00
Templeton Rye	80	Al Capone's favorite. Is it yours? Not as spicy as many ryes. Heads off with toffee and honeycomb, then has a crisp minty and cinnamon flavor.	American	10.00
Wild Turkey Rye	81	A sweeter version of the grain. Still holds a bit of spice, but cherry and woody vanilla are prominent. Not a harsh rye. It's a good rye, just not a harsh one.	American	8.00
Whistle Pig †	100	Spicy characteristics make this rye bleed pepper &amp; ginger. Still sweet in spots, but definitely reminds you that it's a 100% rye product.	American	15.00

Bourbon, Whisk(e)y

Brand	Proof	Profile	Type	1.5 oz.
Angel's Envy	86.6	Unique process and conceptual spirit. Aged in oak and finished in vintage and ruby Port barrels. Complex. Housés a traditional vanilla character with a smoky undertone, as well as caramelized fruits and chocolates.	American	9.00
Baker's †	107	The unique trait here is in the special yeast used in the fermentation process. Mellow. If you like cognac, you'll enjoy Baker's. Heavy vanilla, chocolate, nutmeg and fruitcake characteristics. Don't let the proof scare you.	American	11.00
Basil Hayden's	80	Higher rye content than most straight bourbons. Hints of peppermint but tastes spicy, peppery and honey-like.	American	10.00
Belle Meade	90.4	High rye content. Hints of maple and caramel with additional floral fragrances and citrus zests on the nose. Bold rye, caramel and vanilla tastes with hints of apricot.	American	9.00
Black Maple Hill	95	Citrus character with orange notes and a woody nose. Smooth and sweet finish. At times, a bit harsh – just splash a bit of water. Great product. Get it while it's in stock.	American	11.00
Blanton's †	93	Unique single-barrel bottling. Bottles vary from state-to-state. Smooth and dangerous. Notes of honey, caramel and burnt sugar.	American
Booker's	121-127	Bottled straight from the barrel. Uncut and unfiltered. Hot burn without a dash of water. Oak, vanilla and a smoky charcoal nose. Intense flavor that includes fruitiness, tannin and tobacco.	American	13.00
Breckenridge	86	Woody nose with gunpowder vanilla notes. Sherry character with heavy orange flavors. Worth your time.	American	9.00
Buffalo Trace	89	Rich and complex with hints of vanilla, toffee and candied fruit. Don't expect a lot of rye, here.	American	8.00
Bulleit	90	FRONTIER! Honest and approachable bourbon. Smoky and oaky, but not insulting about it. Good amount of rye. Drinks well with mixers, straight or on the rocks.	American	8.00
Bulleit 10	91.2	A 10 year old version of the Bulleit above. Hidden nose, but reveals a classic vanilla and wood. Heavy wood taste with spicy backing. If you're going to mix this with anything other than ice, then go for the OG Bulleit.	American	11.00
Charred Oak	100	Hand made one bottle at a time. Cherry overtones on the nose. Tastes of earthy and charred oak flavors (obviously).	American	7.00
Cyrus Noble	90	Rich and velvety with caramel notes. Get your hazelnut and toffee, here.	American	8.00
Eagle Rare Single Barrel 10 YR	90	Classic structure. The only corn you catch here is on the nose. Caramel finish with vanilla and cocoa. Great balance. Try it and see.	American	8.00
Eagle Rare 17 YR	90	Appealing. Sweet honey flavors with light woody notes. If you thought the 10 year was flawless, give this one a try.	American	14.00
Elmer T. Lee Single Barrel 10 YR	90	Clover, vanilla and leathery nose. A fruity balance with honey, vanilla and light spice. A very tight and complex bourbon.	American	8.00
Evan Williams Black Label	86	Standard fair. A bit watery, but has a rye-like kick. Smoky finish.	American	7.00
Four Roses Single Barrel	100	Spicy, fruity and a maple-like nose. Full bodied bourbon with hints of ripe plum and cherries. One of Four Roses' best products.	American	12.00

Bourbon, Whisk(e)y

Brand	Proof	Profile	Type	1.5 oz.
George Dickel Barrel Select	86	Consistent taste. Good balance. Vanilla hints with subtle charcoal characteristics. A good representation of Tennessee whiskey.	Tennessee	9.00
George Dickel No. 12	90	A bit smoky with plenty of sweetness in the finish. You'll taste some vanilla and oak, here. You'll also taste whiskey.	Tennessee	7.00
High West American Prairie	92	A blend of two bourbons. Heavy citrus nose with likes of orange, cherry and lemon. A slippery body with very light wood characteristics. Very versatile.	American	10.00
Jack Daniel's	80	Balanced nose with hints of vanilla. A little oaky. A little sour. It's Jack. With Coke, it's Jack and Coke.	Tennessee	7.00
Jack Daniel's Single Barrel	94	Sweeter than its counter-part. Bitter finish, but still pleasant. Smoke and wood mask a bit of the vanilla flavors giving it an interesting balance.	Tennessee	12.00
Jefferson's Reserve Bourbon	90.2	A blend of three bourbons. Classic vanilla nose with hints of cinnamon. Creamy body with malted caramel and roasted marshmallow flavors.	American	13.00
Jim Beam Black Double Aged	86	Hot bourbon. Adding water opens this guy up. Wood notes with orange and spicy incense. Your standard Jim Beam with a more refined taste.	American	8.00
Kentucky Vintage	90	Creamy texture with hints of ginger, butter and apples. Almond finish. Not very complex. Easy to sip on. Acceptable to mix with. All around versatility.	American	7.00
Knob Creek	100	Mild vanilla and toasty oak. Cedar spice. Not too sweet. A simple bourbon of exceptional quality.	American	9.00
Knob Creek Single Barrel	120	A higher proof version of its brother. Scorching hot bourbon. Benefits from being cut down a bit with water. Surprisingly sweet notes of vanilla but with an added wood character.	American	11.0
Larceny	92	Wheat. Fresh wood on the nose and on the palate. Sweet caramel and citrus characteristics. Not overly complex. Easy sipping and acceptable mixing.	American	8.00
Lion's Pride Millet	80	Tart with a dark fruity finish. A unique spirit to say the least.	American	11.00
Maker's Mark	90	A soft and easy bourbon. Typical vanilla notes and aromas of sugar cane in the nose. These are apparent in the body of the bourbon as well. You've had it before. Have it again.	American	8.00
Maker's Mark 46	94	Takes after its brother but this time around has more woody characteristics to it. This one tends to drink a bit hotter.	American	9.00
Mitcher's Original Sour Mash †	86	"Sour Mash" just means that some fermented mash is held from one batch of whiskey to start the process for the next batch. Nothing sour, here. Fruity and silky. Lightly wooded and hints of apple pie. The corn balances out the whole experience. Have some.	American	10.00
Noah's Mill	114.3	Nice mahogany complexion with a sooty nose. A little salty, minty with a creamy texture. Rye stands out well and finishes with toffee, peppermint and molasses-like flavors. Enormous and in-tune.	American	11.00
Old Forester	86	Sold before, during and after Prohibition. This bourbon has been around the block. Higher rye content than most bourbons. Traditional vanilla and oaky flavors.	American	7.00
Old Fitzgerald Very Special 12 YR	90	Licorice and peppery wheat on the nose. Fruity and fudgy on the palate. The sugars and spices are racing against one another in a good way. An excellent bourbon with no arrogance.	American	8.00
Redemption High-Rye	92	Not a "rye." Just a lot of it. Dry spiciness balances the sweetness of the corn. Acceptable to sip or just ask us to make you a Manhattan with it. We will.	American	7.00

Brand	Proof	Profile	Type	1.5 oz.
1792 Ridgmont Reserve	93.7	Sweet and bold. The rye is prominent. Very prominent. It makes it a little hard to notice the sweeter notes hiding here. But go ahead and try. It'll be fun.	American	7.00
Russell's Reserve Small Batch 10 YR	90	Lightly oaked with heavy citrus influences. Feels hotter than most 90 proofs. It's a solid bourbon.	American	8.00
Seagram's 7	80	Commonly confused for Canadian because everything about it tastes Canadian. Standard fare blend most popularly mixed with 7UP.	American	7.00
Wathen's	94	Classic sweet bourbon nose littered with orange marmalade, vanilla and oak. Tastes of raisins, cherries, oranges and opens up to peppery spice. Doesn't feel too heavy.	American	9.00
W.L. Weller 12 YR	90	Creamed corn on the nose with toasty vanilla. Heavy wheat palate but surprisingly sweet. You're looking at a long and oaky finish with this spirit, so be prepared to sip.	American	7.00
Wild Turkey 101	101	A surprisingly clean and easy high-proof spirit. Heavy applewood undertones with plenty of vanilla. If the last time you had The Bird was in college, revisit it immediately.	American	7.00
Wild Turkey Rare Breed	108.2	Light chocolate notes but vanilla stands out more. Most enthusiasts would say to drink bourbon neat, but this "rare breed" does exceptionally well when chilled.	American	10.00
Willett Pot Still Reserve	94	Smells of lightly toasted oak with a faint spice. This nose is kind of restricted and takes a while for everything to come out fully. Tastes of maple, caramel and salty buttered popcorn. Stands out just like its bottle.	American	9.00
Woodford Reserve	90.4	Typically hot, so it usually benefits from a splash of water. It'll help the sweetness peek out of the spicy and heavy oak flavors that are more prominent.	American	9.00

Scotch | Blended

Brand	Proof	Profile	Type	1.5 oz.
The Black Grouse	80	Heavier on the wood than his lighter brother, The Famous Grouse. Peaty nose with a peaty palate, although still sweet and well balanced.	Blended	7.00
Chivas 12 YR	80	Light Apricot nose. Simultaneously smooth and dry with a buttery finish.	Blended	9.00
Compass Box Asyla †	80	Crisp and complex. Balanced grassy and vanilla malts. The grain in this guy is prominent but not insulting about it. If you're a fan of blended scotch do yourself a favor and try this one.	Blended	11.00
Cutty Sark	80	Upfront smoke followed by honey and vanilla. Citrus sneaks in behind the heat.	Blended	8.00
Dewar's White Label	80	Ripe pear on the nose and a little oaky. A delicate blend with light malt and vanilla on the palate. Not intrusive.	Blended	7.00
Dewar's 18 YR	86	Heavy grain on the nose. Fruity and spicy. Hints of caramel. This is a blend that's not all about the malt and worthy of your time.	Blended	17.00
The Famous Grouse	80	The flavors of smoke, custard and vanilla in here come quick and fast. An approachable scotch.	Blended	7.00
Isle of Skye 8YO	80	Grain, smoke and honey on the nose. The smoke is shy on the palate but honey and fudge make an appearance. A sophisticated blend.	Blended	7.00
J & B Rare	80	A young nose with faint peat and a little marshy salt air. Clean grain with vanilla on the palate. A scotch appropriate for mixing. Or drink it neat. We're fine either way.	Blended	7.00
Johnnie Walker Black	80	Lightly peated with a sweeter and fruitier body. Great balance. A scotch drinker's scotch.	Blended	9.00
Johnnie Walker Red	80	Toffee and apple on the nose. Tastes young and very lightly peated. A bit sweet. A great entry-level scotch.	Blended	8.00
Wemyss Spice King 8 YR	80	Berry and bready nose. Similar body, with cinnamon and rich savory spices.	Blended	9.00
Wemyss The Hive 12YR †	80	Sweet all the way around, but not too much to where it's uncomfortable. You'll get some earthy flavors as well but at the end of it all, it comes right back down to the honey.	Blended	12.00

Japanese / Whisk(e)y

Brand	Proof	Profile	Type	1.5 oz.
Hibiki 12 YR	86	Very approachable spirit. Blended taste, but not the same as traditional Canadian. You'll get hints of freshly brewed tea and waves of grain. Flowery notes, but not overwhelming.	Blended	14.00
Nikka Pure Malt 12 YR	80	Taketsuru is the vatting process of the malts. Bold with light hints of honey and smoke. Similar to a Highland malt. An interesting blend.	Blended	14.00
Yamazaki 12 YR †	86	Pure gold in color with scents of honey, clove, candied orange, peach and vanilla. You'll taste some spiced wood, coconut, cranberry and butter. This finish is a long and woody one. Try it next to some single malt scotch for comparison.	Single Malt	13.00

Scotch | Single Malt

Brand	Proof	Profile	Type	1.5 oz.
Dalwhinnie	86	A very approachable scotch. If you're a newbie, start here. Still holds up to professionals. Big, crisp and aromatic nose. Light to medium body with a deep citrus taste. Hints of malt with a long finish.	Highland	13.00
Glen Grant 10 YR	80	Lightly oaked nose with a mouthwatering and clean taste. A little honey and a little spice. A confident scotch.	Speyside	10.00
Glenlivet	80	A nice smoky nose with heavy caramel taste. A little surprising for this type of malt, but an interesting touch.	Speyside	10.00
Glenlivet Nadurra 16 YR	96	Ginger on the nose with a spicy character. A quick, clean and dry finish leaves you wanting to sip more to explore some of those hidden flavors.	Speyside	17.00
Glenmorangie 10 YR	80	This puzzled nose leaves you gentle and assertive, sweet and dry, young and oaky. You'll taste toasted barley with a little smoke. Salted caramel. A fine and classic scotch.	Highland	10.00
Glenmorangie Quinta Ruban Port †	92	Typically enigmatic of Glenmorangie, but this time the smell of grape makes it into the mix. Sweet and juicy until the end. A nice grape to oak balance. A unique spirit.	Highland	12.00
Glenmorangie Sonalta	92	Sherry, praline and malt on the nose. An interesting trio. Old grape and vanilla all over the palate. Demerara sugar. Memorable.	Highland	18.00
Highland Park 12 YR	80	Honey and peaty on the nose that transitions into the palate. The finish is a little subtle on the smoke while tasting mildly fruity.	Island	13.00
Highland Park 18 YR	86	Salty and buttery nose. Intense flavors. Metallic honey and light peat make this a muscular single malt.	Island	25.00
Lagavulin 16 YR †	86	Sweet, peat and seaside on the nose. If you can get passed it, it's smooth sailing from there. And worth it. Dry and sweet ashy flavors surround you and lead you to the seaside finish-line. Pair it with cheeses.	Islay	20.00
Laphroaig 10 YR	80	Peaty, peaty, peaty nose. A crisp pure malt that wants to make more mention of the barley until the smoke rushes in. Try it neat, drop some water in it or if you want, ask us to make you a Bloody Mary. Really.	Islay	10.00
The Macallan 12 YR	80	Vanilla on the nose with light ginger and the sweetness of sherry. Smooth with dried fruits and balanced smoke. A favorite amongst most.	Speyside	13.00
The Macallan 18 YR	86	A dried fruit and ginger on the nose here as well. This time around, you'll taste clove and wood smoke until the lingering of toffee and ginger come back to finish the experience.	Speyside	40.00
Oban 14 YR	86	An olive gold color with a lightly sweet nose that gives in to some peat and sea-salt. A very firm body that tastes sweet and smoky. Worth checking out.	Highland	14.00
Talisker †	91.6	Salty and smoky on the nose. A very firm body with tastes of dried, smoky fruit and black pepper. Pair this guy with some oysters for maximum pleasure.	Island	12.00
