ADVISORY NOTE: Mexican dishes are sometimes considered to be spicy hot, but this is not the case. You may season your food to create the hotness or mildness you prefer with our Mexican salsa caliente. If you have any food allergies, notify your server. Our food is prepared fresh without added preservatives (MSG) or animal fats. We use only soybean oil, EXCEPT in our tortillas, which contain Trans fats. Traditionally, most Mexican cooking is often laborious and time consuming because of the many ingredients and processes involved in making each facet of the meal. At Jalapeno Mexican Kitchen our sauces are made each morning with the freshest vegetables. Each dish is individually prepared to order.
