

Hors D'œuvres - Antipasti - Закуски - APPETIZERS - 前菜 - Vorspeisen- - Ορεκτικά - مقبلات

Hummus, Middle East - Hummus is a transliteration of the Arabic word حَمَص , which means chickpeas. It's very popular throughout the Middle East, and is made with sesame oil in addition to chickpeas and other seasonings. Served with warm pita bread 8.95

Jalapeño Poppers, The DRB - Our guess is that this was not a variation of a Mexican dish, but a good idea invented by intoxicated college kids. Stuffed with cheese, breaded, and fried 8.95

Mozzarella Sticks, The DRB - They're homemade! One fresh mozzarella is sliced and coated with Italian bread crumbs before frying to the undebatably perfect crispness. Served with marinara sauce 8.95

Coconut Shrimp, The DRB - These shrimp are beer-battered and then breaded with coconut flakes before being cooked to a golden-brown 10.95

Samosas, India/West Africa - Samosas are triangle-shaped pastries that are commonly filled with some type of amazing flavorful food. While they're a staple snack in countries like India and Somalia, they're also found all throughout Asia, Africa, and recently even Australia and North America. Ours are filled with vegetables and served with a sweet fruit chutney. 8.95

Calamari, Europe - Every morning, we take a boat out into the ocean and drop nets. This is how we catch our breaded fresh calamari and most of our beer. We then deep-fry our calamari to a golden-brown and suggest one of our fresh-caught beers to go with it. 11.95

Fried Yuca, South America - Crispy, fresh cassava sticks served hot with a homemade cilantro sauce 9.95

Potstickers, Southeast Asia - Known as gyōza in Japan, or jiǎozi in China, we simply call them scrumptious dumplings of deliciousness. Feel free to use your own adjectives when you talk about them. Ours are filled with pork and you can have them pan-fried or steamed. 9.95

Chicken Wings, USA - Everybody knows chicken wings and beer go together like white rice in a glass of milk on a paper plate in a snowstorm. Tossed in your choice of Buffalo spicy, Asian sweet chili, or our Balsamic Jerk sauce 10.95

Chips Con Que Quieres, Mexico - Those of you who have a passion for dipping things will watch all of your wildest dreams come true with this creative dish. Fresh corn tortilla chips with our spicy salsa or/and our hot melted cheese sauce! 6.95 Add Cheese +2

Tostones, South America - Latin America is known worldwide not only for creating beautiful women, but also Tostones! These plantain medallions are fried once, pounded flat, then fried a second time and served with our mouth-watering mojo sauce. 8.95

DWNTWN Miami Wedges, The DRB - Adabei was in his own little world when he invented this dish during one of those New Year's weekends when the Phish concert was in town (if you know what I mean). Our potato wedges covered with melted cheese and diced tomatoes. They're awesome! 7.95

DRB Supreme Fries, The DRB - This is a hot, crispy, pile of French fries topped with a pile of Nacho cheese, a pile of fresh ground beef, and then a pile of homemade pico de gallo. 10.95

Salades - سلطة - Insalate - Салаты - SALADS - サラダ - Salate - Ensaladas - Σαλάτες

Side House Salad, The DRB - Our widely respected food menu consulting firm came up with this crazy concoction! Spring mix, tomato wedges, onions, and olives served with your choice of dressing!

5.95

Greek Salad, Greece - Crispy Romaine, red onions, Calamata olives, green bell peppers, pepperoncinis, and Feta cheese served with our red wine vinaigrette

10.95

Caesar Salad, Mexico - Contrary to popular belief, this salad actually got its name from Caesar Cardini, an Italian-born Mexican who invented it July 4th, 1924 at his restaurant in Tijuana. True story! Romaine lettuce tossed with Caesar dressing, then topped with croutons and Parmesan cheese. Add chicken, fish or shrimps if you like.

8.95

DRB Salad, The DRB - Spring mix topped with sliced strawberries, Mandarin oranges, fresh cranberries, and candied walnuts with your choice of dressing

9.95

Insalata Caprese, Italy - Our chef went to Italy to master this delicacy. Don Vito Insalata himself gave our chef his recipe (Our chef made The Don an offer he couldn't refuse). It's fresh tomatoes, sliced mozzarella, basil with olive oil and balsamic vinegar. Bada Bing, Bada Boom!

10.95

Grilled Salmon Salad, The DRB - Mixed greens topped with tomato wedges, sliced onion rings, Calamata olives, and a grilled Salmon fillet served with your choice of dressing

16.95

Bánh mì - Sanwits - شطيرة - SANDWICHES & SLIDERS - сандвич - सैंडविच - Sendviče

DRB Bacon Cheeseburger, The DRB - This monster is 1/2 pound of fresh ground beef topped with lettuce, tomato, onions, pickles, bacon, melted Swiss cheese, two fried onion rings, and mayonnaise on a toasted Kaiser roll served with potato wedges. Try and eat that three times fast!

16.95

Grilled Chicken Sandwich, The DRB - Don't let the vegetarians fool you; everyone loves grilled chicken, but we were stumped on how exactly the chicken should be served. We tried serving the chicken floating in a bucket of water, but Jaren Rivas, Passport Holder #012 said the chicken loses its taste that way and suggested we serve it as a sandwich on a baguette with lettuce, tomato, and onions with a side of French fries.

13.95

Sirloin Steak Sandwich, The DRB - We intended on having an item on our menu titled "Sandwich" that consisted of sautéed onions, lettuce, and tomato on a fresh baguette served with French fries, but our citizens found it rather dull. They suggested we put Sirloin steak on it and rename it. The people seem to like it.

14.95

Chicken Caesar Sandwich, The DRB - Crispy chicken on a mini Caesar salad in a French baguette served with French fries.

14.95

Beef Sliders, The DRB - Mini-sized versions of what we call a "hamburger." The "hamburger" was a concept entirely invented here at The DRB. Three beef "burgers" topped with DRB Sauce, lettuce, tomato, and cheese.

12.95 Add Fries +2

Chicken Sliders, The DRB - A chicken twist on our burger phenomenon. Three mini crispy chicken sandwiches with lettuce and tomato. Those feeling adventurous may attempt trying these Buffalo style, which are tossed in our spicy buffalo sauce.

Churrasco Steak, Argentina - Grilled to your preference and served with our homemade Chimichurri sauce. Served with mashed potatoes and mixed vegetables.

17.95

Sirloin Steak & Fries, USA - Close your eyes and picture a seasoned steak grilled to perfection with potato wedges on the side. Then open your eyes, wipe the drool off your face, and order it from your attentive server.

17.95

Bangers & Mash, United Kingdom - Homemade fresh mashed potatoes, topped with two sausages, caramelized onions, and gravy. "Bangers" got their nickname in England during World War I and II, when, due to rationing, they were made with so much water that they would often explode when cooking. KABOOM!

12.95

Bratwurst, Germany - Considered delicious worldwide for seven hundred years, our brats are grilled and served with bacon potato salad and sauerkraut. ICH KANN NICHT SPRECHEN DEUTSCH!

12.95

Tacos, Mexico - Try these bad boys the authentic way how the Mexicans intended (meat, onions, cilantro, and spicy sauce). What is the only place in Downtown Miami to get authentic tacos is going on over here?!

Chicken 12.95 / Steak, Fish, or Shrimp +2

Mosselen-Friet, Belgium - Mussels steamed with lemon, onions, garlic sauce, white ale, served with fries. Belgian's national dish, aka moules-frites in French, is found all over the little nation commonly referred to as the beer capital of the world. In Belgium, mussels are particularly popular in the summertime, and usually come from Zeeland, a province in Holland. Ours come from New Zealand, which got its name from the same place.

13.95

Jalea, Peru - A pile of potato wedges, crispy fish, shrimp, and calamari, topped with cilantro, sliced onions, and chopped tomatoes marinated in lime juice.

16.95

Grilled Mahi, USA - Fresh Mahi fillet grilled and served with mashed potatoes and mixed veggies.

17.95

Flatbread Pizza, Italy - Our flatbread (pronounced flatbread) is coincidentally a flat bread which is topped with tomato sauce and mozzarella cheese. It's exactly like a pizza, only way better, since it's shaped like a rectangle with rounded corners instead of a circle.

16.95 Pepperoni +2

Camarones al Ajillo, Spain - Succulent shrimp sautéed in white wine and our lemon garlic butter. Served with mashed potatoes and mixed vegetables.

16.95

Fish & Chips, United Kingdom - Originating in the United Kingdom, this dish is found all over the world, especially in former British colonies. Beer-battered fish with a pile of potato wedges and tartar sauce.

15.95

Grilled Salmon, The DRB - Fresh Salmon fillet grilled and served with mashed potatoes and mixed vegetables.

16.95

Chicken Tikka Masala, India - Recently named "Britain's national dish", this South Asian favorite is savored worldwide. Diced chicken mixed into a tomato and coconut cream sauce with turmeric. Served with pita bread and mashed potatoes.

13.95

PASTAS

Calamari Fra Diavolo, Italy - Calamari sautéed with a touch of white wine and hot marinara sauce with a bed of spaghetti. 14.95

Lasagna, Italy - Homemade baked meat lasagna topped with melted mozzarella cheese 10.95

Lambic Float, Belgium - We held a vote asking our citizens what were the two greatest inventions in history, and the results were not surprising. Every single voter agreed that ice cream and beer are far more important than the wheel or the internet. Our chef knew what he had to do: Combine these two technological masterpieces! A scoop of vanilla ice cream on top of your choice of our Belgian Lambics (cherry, plum, strawberry, raspberry, pineapple, or banana). 13.95

Cookie Monster, The DRB - This dessert is the number one reason why most of the employees work here. It's a warm, hot, fluffy, chewy chocolate chip cookie that's filled more chocolate, topped with vanilla ice cream, and then drizzled with caramel sauce. 6.95
