WELCOME TO WHITECHAPEL

In the heart of East London...deep beneath the streets...amongst the crumbling ruins of a long abandoned Underground station...something unusual is afoot. The fragrant smell of juniper mingles with exotic botanicals sourced from across the vast British Empire. The hiss of steam punctures the damp subterranean air, and the fires of distillation yield forth the wondrous elixir that has captivated the entire realm: Gin.

Welcome to Whitechapel. A celebration of the wonder of gin. Featuring the largest gin selection in North America, and a carefully chosen cocktail menu that celebrates the history and traditions of this amazing spirit. Far from its reputation as a painfully serious spirit, our menu showcases gin's versatility and lively approachability with a selection of drinks that are bound to please. So relax, enjoy some fine food and drink, and let us take you back to a time when gin was magic...and drinking gin made you kind of magical, too.

~The Whitechapel Team

GIN RICKEY 10

Gin, lime, seltzer

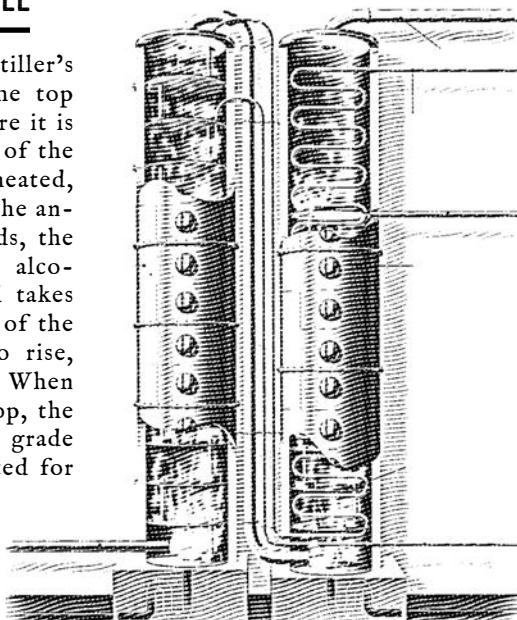

SINGAPORE SLING 13

Gin, cherry heering, benedictine, angostura bitters, seltzer, lemon

Whitechapel house gin is made by Distillery No. 209 here in San Francisco using select English garden botanicals that combine to create the ultimate Victorian era London dry gin.

A COLUMN STILL

The fermented distiller's beer comes in at the top of the rectifier, where it is warmed by the heat of the rising vapor. Once heated, it enters the top of the analyzer. As it descends, the steam extracts the alcohol and aromas and takes them to the bottom of the rectifier. It starts to rise, and gradually cools. When it is almost at the top, the desired quality and grade of alcohol is extracted for further processing.

CAMPO ALEGRE RUEDA VERDEJO, spain 12

Aging on the lees gives this bright wine pleasant dried apricot and bread aromas that mingle nicely with hints of vanilla and dried flowers. A round and soft mouth feel accompany juicy apple, pear, and cut grass.

DOMAINE VOCORET CHABLIS, france 13

The aromas and flavors develop quickly with this Burgundian chardonnay. On the palate lovely citrus tones complement hints of slate, limestone, apple, and stone fruit. Overall well-balanced and beautifully dry with some nice acidity on the persistent finish.

... R E D S ...

MASI CAMPOFIORIN, italy 11

This Supervenetian blend is inspired by the Amarone production method and also employs the use of dried grapes to achieve more concentrated flavors. Ripe cherries and black currants up front are followed by rich spice, vanilla, and cocoa on the finish.

ANCIENT PEAKS RENEGADE SYRAH, california 13

This Central Coast powerhouse opens with extravagant aromas of black fruit, blueberry, vanilla bean and smoked bacon. Flavors of black cherry & blackcurrant cascade along a plush, mouthfilling texture trailing with notes of cola, spice, and toasted oak.

Powerful structure yields to elegant finesse on the finish.
