

Above and Beyond Catering located right in Boston's Historical South End has put together a special on-site dining experience that will allow you to wow your significant other for Valentine's Day.

Everything will be taken care of for you and all you will have to do is sit back and let the experience begin.

Staff will arrive at your house once an agreed upon time is set, and adorn your table with Red Valentine linen and candle light. They will bring in all the china and glasses picked especially to compliment a three course Asian inspired meal.
